

HON 3000/03 Leadership in Action – Dr. Rita Bailey

Course Description: Leadership is about articulating a vision, building consensus toward common goals, and energizing people to action. Leaders are agents of change and they inspire and influence others toward common goals. This 1-credit, pass/fail class involves examination of leadership including understanding the impact of leadership on organizations and the characteristics of effective leadership.