HON-Prefix Courses

| Course | Course Title | CRN | Instructor | Date & Time |
|--|----------------------------|-------------|--------------------|--------------------------------|
| HON 3000/01 | Very Local City as Text | 87143 | Dr. Lynn Stallings | Fridays 11:00 – 1:45 p.m. |
| Based on the concept of City as Text, we will explore local areas including Kennesaw, Marietta, Sweet Auburn, Little Five Points, and others through brief excursions. Using techniques from integrative fieldwork and ethnography, we will explore what makes each distinctive and how each of us brings our own lenses to these systematic observations. | | | | |
| HON 3000/04 | Art & the Year of Morocco | 88073 | Donna Colebeck | Wednesdays 4:00 – 5:00 p.m. |
| The Year of Morocco Honors Seminar explores Morocco's culture, history, geography, arts, visual art and design. The interdisciplinary interactive course emphasizes exploration of content (Morocco), as well as hands-on experiences that encourage the application of course topics and relate to the eight foundations of the Honors Program at KSU. Students will engage in experiential learning that involve creativity, critical thinking and appreciation of diverse viewpoints facilitated by the instructor from the School of Art and Design. | | | | |
